Eek-eek-eek and the television

Once upon a time there was a zoo keeper called Miss Keep. She had lots of animals in her zoo. She had a lion called Log and a tiger called Tog. She had a camel called Cog and a zebra called Zog. She had a monkey called Mog and a horse called Hog. And she had a mouse called Eek-eek-eek.

She had to work very hard. Every day she had to sweep the animals' cages, she had to buy the animals' food, she had to cook the animals' food, she had to take the food to the animals, she had to collect the empty dishes and she had to wash the dishes.

"This is hard work," she said, "but it's easier than being a teacher."

But one day poor Miss Keep got very tired. She said, "This isn't fair, I do all the work. Today I'm going to tell the animals to do the work."

"Log the lion," she said, "I want you to go and sweep the animals cages."	So	Log the lion went and swept all the animals' cages.
"Tog the tiger," she said, "I want you to go and buy the animals' food."	So	Tog the tiger went and bought all the animals' food.

"Cog the camel," she said, "I want you to go and cook the animals' food."	So	Cog the camel went and cooked all the animals' food.
"Zog the zebra," she said, "I want you to go and take the food to the animals."	So	Zog the zebra went and took all the food to the animals.
"Mog the monkey," she said, "I want you to go and collect the empty dishes."	So	Mog the monkey went and collected all the empty dishes.
"Hog the horse," she said, "I want you to go and wash the dishes."	So	Hog the horse went and washed all the dishes.

"What do you want me to do?" asked Eek-eek-eek the mouse.

"You're too little to work," said Miss Keep. "I want you to sit down and watch television with me."	So	Eek-eek-eek the mouse sat down and watched television with Miss Keep.
---	----	---

But Log and Tog and Cog and Zog and Mog and Hog all saw Eek-eek-eek sitting down and watching television.

"This isn't fair," they said, "We are doing all the work and Miss Keep and Eek-eek-eek the mouse are just sitting down and watching television."
